Industrial Zone & Manufacturing Facility Security Solutions

Security solutions for industrial zones and manufacturing facilities provided by An Ninh Canh Ve are designed to meet the following requirements:

- Ensuring high-level security for goods, assets, and business operations.
- Strict control of inbound and outbound cargo, preventing theft, fraud, and loss.
- Early detection and prompt response to acts of sabotage, vandalism, and security breaches.
- Ensuring absolute safety for people and assets at all times.

With extensive experience in providing security services to large-scale manufacturing facilities, we are confident in delivering comprehensive and optimal security solutions tailored to our clients' operational needs.

Office Building & Residential Security Solutions

Security solutions for office buildings and residential complexes provided by An Ninh Canh Ve are designed to meet the expectations of clients, occupants, and stakeholders:

- Ensuring a safe, secure, and professional environment at all times.
- Deploying professionally trained security personnel, well-versed in access control, customer service, and incident handling.
- Implementing clear security procedures to ensure consistent and effective operations.

Beyond providing security guards, we design customized security solutions tailored to each client's specific characteristics, ensuring synchronization, efficiency, and sustainability.

Banking Security System Solutions

The banking sector requires a high level of professionalism and the ability to respond rapidly to risks related to people, assets, and information.

An Ninh Canh Ve Security Services delivers specialized banking security solutions supported by experienced personnel, strict operational discipline, and rapid response forces professionally trained in security techniques and licensed equipment usage.

With extensive experience in providing security services for the banking sector, we ensure that information security, asset protection, and operational safety are strictly maintained.

We proactively comply with all internal regulations and security standards established by our clients.

Asset Escort & Secure Transportation Solutions

Escort and secure transportation operations are high-risk activities, requiring security personnel with high professionalism, discipline, and a strong sense of responsibility.

An Ninh Canh Ve Security Services provides specialized escort solutions with a strong focus on absolute safety. Each mission is preceded by on-site risk assessments, route analysis, and contingency planning to ensure safe and effective execution.

Our escort teams actively coordinate with relevant stakeholders, ensuring maximum protection for people and assets throughout the assignment.

Event Security Solutions

Security solutions for conferences, exhibitions, and large-scale events focus on managing common security risks that may arise, including:

- Rapid assessment and response to crowd-related situations.
- Early detection and professional handling of potential disturbances and incidents.
- Strict control and coordination to prevent fire hazards and security threats.
- Proactive security operations, ensuring the event proceeds safely and without disruption.
- Professional protection services for VIPs and event organizers.

With extensive experience in event security management, An Ninh Canh Ve Security Services ensures effective crowd control, incident response, and overall event safety, contributing to the successful execution of each event.

Close Protection (Vip Escort) Solutions

Close protection services are designed for public figures, government officials, senior executives, and individuals requiring personal security, with the primary objective of preventing risks that may threaten life or cause disruption during sensitive circumstances.

These assignments require elite close protection officers, selected through a rigorous process and trained with advanced professional skills, rapid response capabilities, and a strong sense of responsibility to ensure absolute safety in all situations.

The management and operational oversight of close protection services at An Ninh Canh Ve Security Services is led by Mr. Nguyen Ngoc Ky, who brings over 15 years of experience in executive protection, including assignments for senior business leaders of major corporations.

WHY CHOOSE AN NINH CANH VE

Prestigious Brand Awards

An Ninh Canh Ve Security Services has been honored and recognized with awards for high-quality security services and Outstanding Entrepreneurial Leadership.

These recognitions represent a great honor and serve as a strong source of motivation, reinforcing our confidence in affirming market position and our ongoing commitment to continuously enhance the quality of security services.

Security Domain Strengths

An Ninh Canh Ve Security Services was founded and is led by senior leaders with strong credibility and distinguished backgrounds in the Vietnam People's Army. We take pride in the values and service quality that have been consistently delivered to our partners and clients.

Beyond meeting basic security requirements, we provide comprehensive security solutions that create a solid foundation for our clients' sustainable business development. We remain committed to standing alongside our clients, supporting their growth and long-term success.

Leadership Philosophy

Our leadership team, built upon senior management experience within the military and public security sectors, represents one of our key competitive strengths. Guided by discipline-driven leadership and extensive hands-on experience, we place strong emphasis on internal training, professional workforce development, and standardized conduct across all security operations.

Thorough planning, decisive decision-making, and timely motivation and recognition mechanisms enable our teams to maintain a proactive mindset. As a result, we consistently deploy accurate, flexible, and reliable security solutions that meet the highest operational standards.

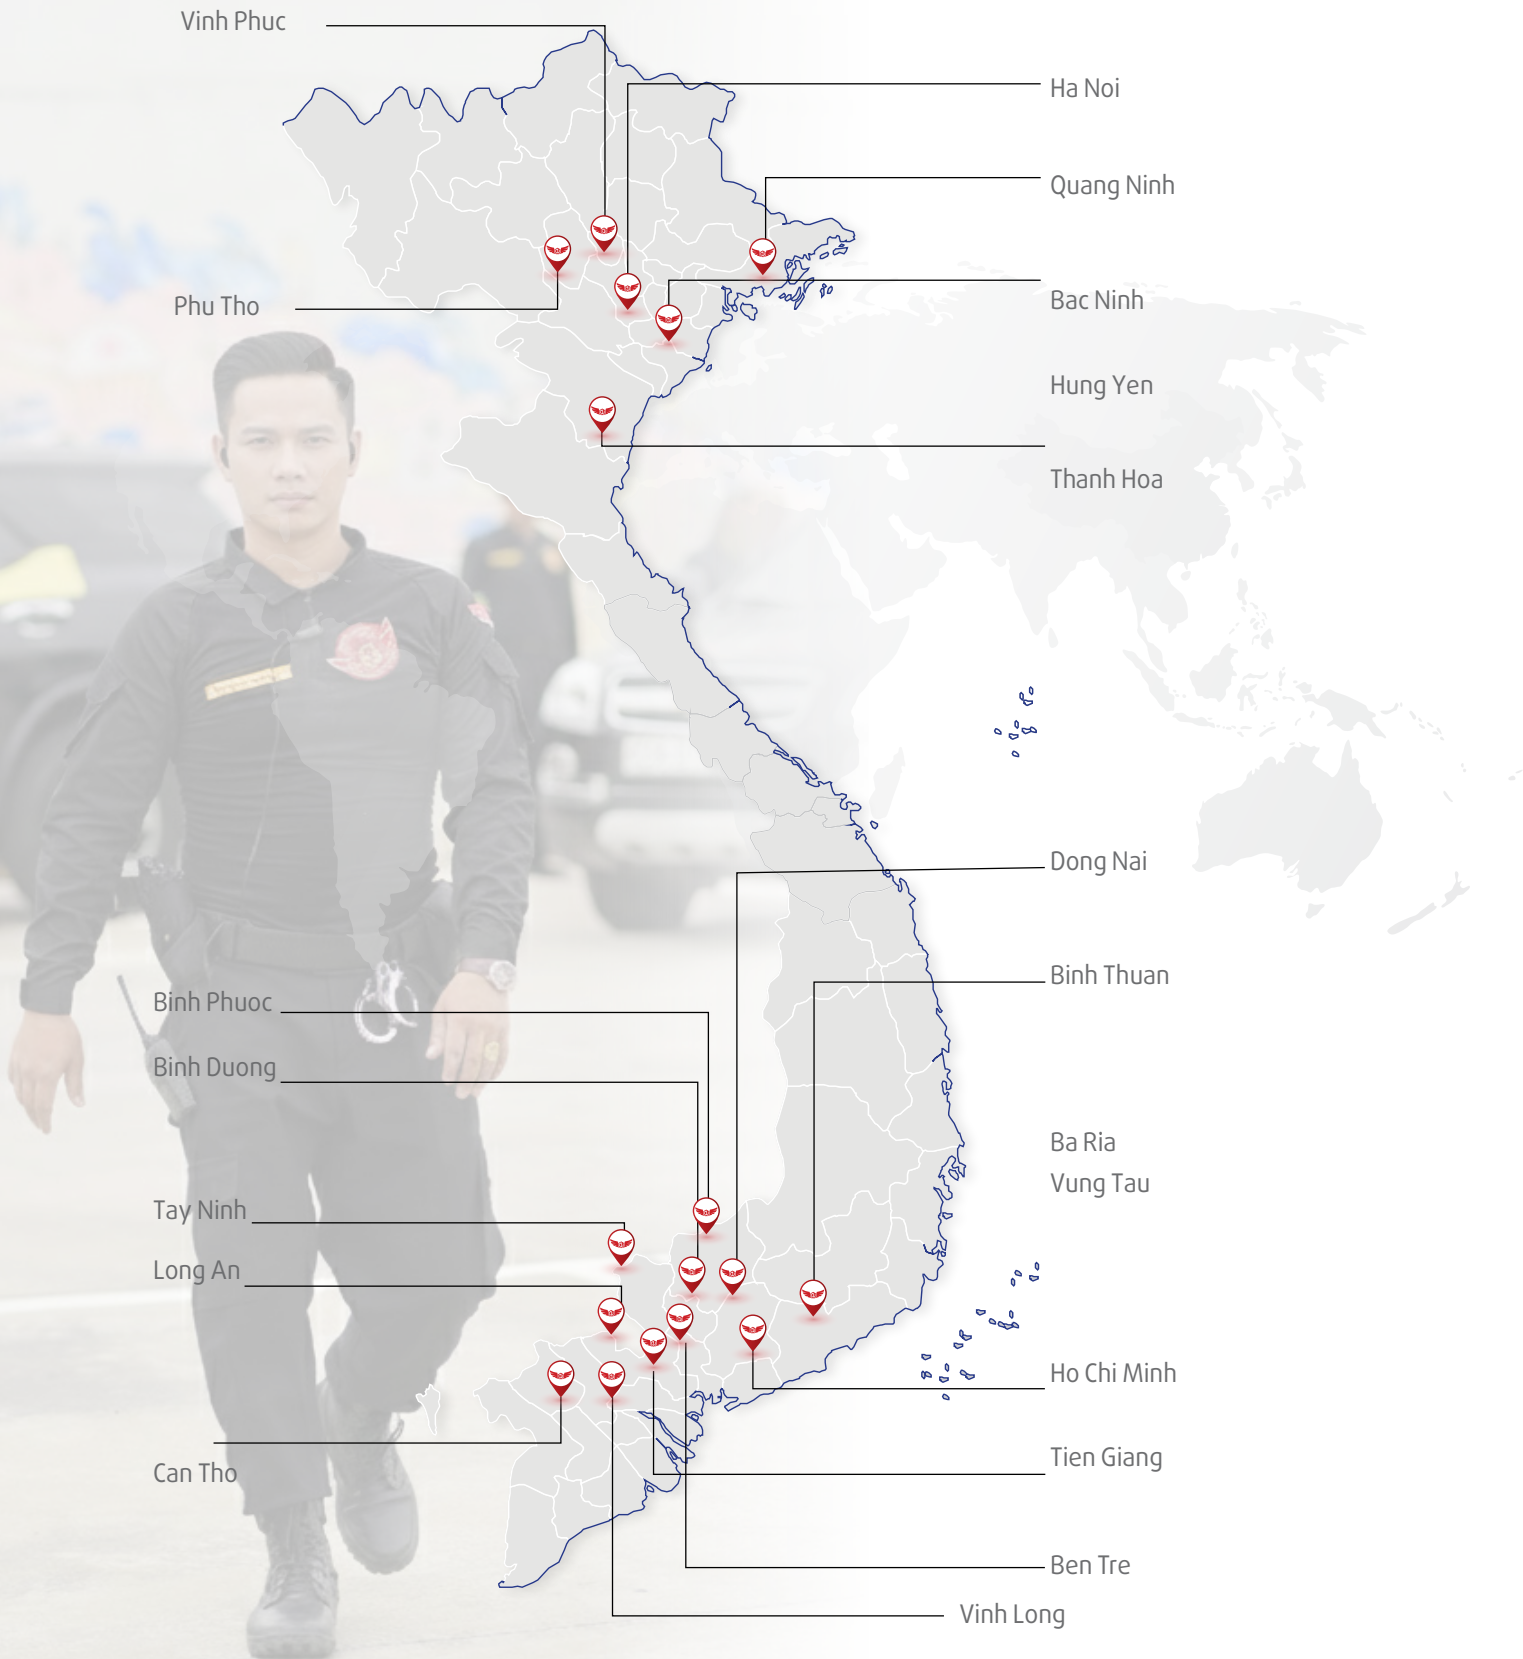

Rapid Response Force

We are not merely a patrol unit, but a core operational force that represents the pride of An Ninh Canh Ve Security Services, entrusted with the mission of maintaining discipline and standardization across the entire security system at client sites. Our rapid response force plays a central role in shaping professionalism, enforcing disciplined operations, streamlining procedures, and ensuring high performance at all protected locations.

With strong mobility and rapid response capabilities, we take the lead in handling emergency situations—arriving at the right time, responding in the right manner, to effectively protect people and assets for our clients.

Operational Coverage

C-TPAT Certification

C-TPAT is a U.S. Customs and Border Protection-initiated program aimed at ensuring security across the global supply chain.

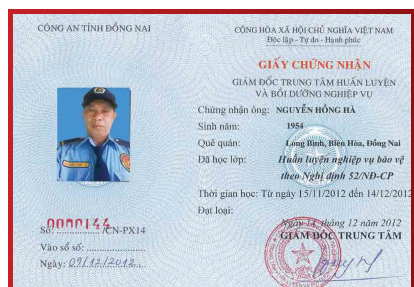

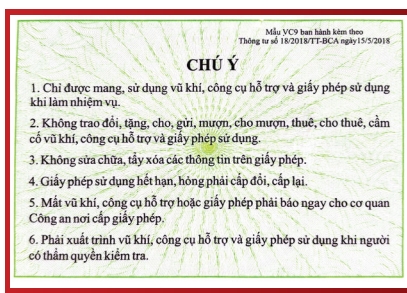

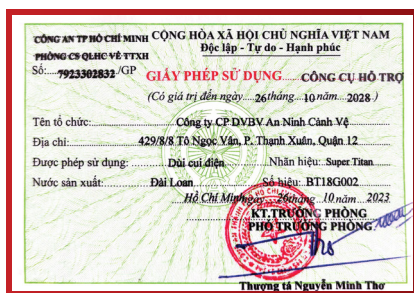

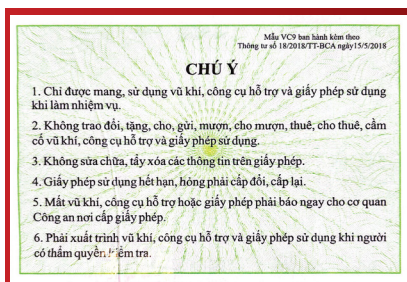

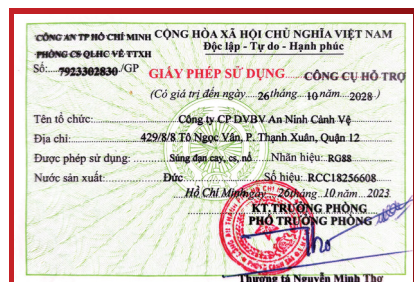

Enterprises certified under C-TPAT are recognized as meeting stringent requirements for cargo security, infrastructure, and transportation. This certification helps reduce inspection time, streamline customs clearance, and enhance export credibility when accessing the U.S. market.

Professional Certifications

An Ninh Canh Ve Security Services holds all required professional certifications and licenses for the use of specialized security equipment, in full compliance with regulations of the Ministry of Public Security of Vietnam.

These certifications ensure that the security solutions we provide meet professional standards, delivering maximum safety and reliability for our clients and partners.

Equipment & Supporting Tools

We equip our security teams with high-quality, modern, and specialized equipment to enhance overall security supervision and operational effectiveness.

In addition, we deploy automated surveillance software systems and training management platforms, enabling continuous knowledge updates and real-time monitoring of security conditions. These systems also support rapid response forces in ensuring timely and effective intervention whenever required.
